Ramsgate Town Council

Projects nominated must be in located in Ramsgate or the adjacent wards, (with the exception of the Thanet award which is open to the whole of Thanet). Nominations will be accepted from anyone including members of the Ramsgate Society, other local community groups, residents' associations, TDC and Ramsgate Town Council, architects, developers, construction companies, as well as individuals and local businesses. Nominations should be made by completing the online Design Awards 2023 nomination form. Uploaded photographs should demonstrate why the project is worthy of an award in the nominated category.

The independent judging panel will be appointed by the Ramsgate Design and Heritage Forum, and will be chaired by Dan Thompson, social artist, writer, designer, and Ramsgate resident. Judges will assess projects on the:

- Quality of the design
- Quality of construction
- Environmental impact and sustainability
- Materials
- Accessibility
- Contribution to placemaking.

The level of budget will be considered, as will the story the project tells.

Please submit up to a maximum of 5 'low resolution' photographs to accompany this completed form. High resolution photographs may be called upon during the judging period together with more detailed information.

Forms and any supporting photographs to be emailed to:
